THE KENTUCKY DERBY.

Next Wednesday, May 4, will be marked by the decision of the twenty-fourth Kentucky Derby. This race from its inauguration when the gallant "red horse" Aristides won from perhaps the best field that ever started for it, has annually ranked among the foremost turf events of this country. Its history is illustrated by the victories of such great race horses as Aristides, Vagrant, Fonso, Hindoo, Leonatus, Ben Ali, Spokane, Riley, Halma and Ben Brush, and many of the great turf stars of America have been among those who vainly tried to carry off its honors.

The winners of the race, their sires, weights and time made are as follows:

|-------|-------------|--------------------|-----|----------|

| 1889. | Spokane | Hyder Ali | 118 | 2:34 1/4 |
| 1890. | Riley | Longfellow | 118 | 2:45 |
| 1891. | Kingman | Glengarry | 122 | 2:52 1/4 |
| 1892. | Azra | Reform | 122 | 2:41 1/4 |
| 1893. | Lookout | Troubadour | 122 | 2:39 1/4 |
| 1894. | Chant | Falsetto | 122 | 2:41 |
| 1895. | Halma | Hanover | 122 | 2:37 1/4 |
| 1896. | Ben Brush | Bramble | 122 | 2:07 1/4 |
| 1897. | Typhoon II. | Topgallant | 122 | 2:12 1/4 |

From its institution until 1896 the Derby was over the proper mile and a half course but in that year it was cut down to a mile and a quarter. Originally an added money sweepstakes it is now of the guaranteed value of $6,000, of which the winner takes $5,000, the second horse $700 and the third $300.

For the Derby of this year twenty-four horses are eligible to start; but it may be safely assumed that most of them will be in their stables when the big race is run. Racing and training operations seem to indicate that this may be about the field that will come to the post:

J. W. Schorr & Son's Lieber Karl (T. Burns), 122.

J. E. Madden's Plaudit (Perkins), 117.

W. & A. McGuigan's Bannockburn (Morrison), 117.

E. O. Pepper's Pacemaker (N. Turner), 117.

T. H. Blackburn & Co.'s Hand'Or (C. Reiff), 117.

George J. Long's Dr. Black (Conley), 117.

C. F. McLean's Gallivant (J. Hill), 117.

E. F. Simm's Isabey (Knapp), 117.

Swing, Goodrich, Frank Thompson, Marcato and Sacket are a group still eligible from which starters may come on the off-chance. In popular estimation all except Lieber Karl, Plaudit and Bannockburn have but scant chance of figuring in the finish. Bannockburn, because of a mild attack of catarrhal fever, did not start at Memphis, but he will probably be found at the post in good condition next Wednesday.

Just how good Lieber Karl is remains to be seen. He was surely a 2-year-old of great speed and at Memphis he has won his two stake engagements without an effort and being well seasoned, is almost sure to go to the post favorite. In Plaudit he will meet an antagonist likely to test his qualities to the utmost. When this colt in his 2-year-old form at weight for age defeated such a horse as Ben Brush at a mile and a sixteenth he at once deservedly took rank as one of the best of his age in this country, and as he has trained on in fine form this spring, there is every reason to anticipate that he will perform up to his best mark of last year. On the whole, there is fairly good reason to think that the Derby of this year will be fully up to any of its predecessors in the quality of its contestants and the widespread interest their meeting will evoke.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

J. M. Murphy has sent Carnero and his much talked of 2-year-old Streamer to Louisville so neither will start at Memphis. Carnero is reported to be in good condition. Trainers who have seen him work say that he will be a hard horse to beat in all-aged western handicaps. Great things are expected of Streamer, and it is said that Murphy has refused an offer of $6,000 for him. He is by Topgallant, dam Kittie Gunn, by Virgil, out of the dam of Moyne, the dam of Glenmoyne.

Latest reports make out the following to be the most probable starters for the Metropolitan Handicap on the opening day of the Morris Park meeting: Ben Holladay, 126; Dr. Catlett, 124; Don d'Oro, 122; Cleophus, 119; Algol, 112; Macy, 110; Imperator, 108; Michael III, 102; George Keene, 102; Bowling Brook, 102; Varus, 100; and Sailor King, 92.

Greatland ran his last race of the present meeting at Newport Tuesday. He is now to be sent to Louisville to fill his stake engagements there. He is evidently a good colt but it is more than probable that few of his opponents so far have been of average merit. It will take the opposition he is sure to meet later on to establish his real class.

B. J. Johnston has shipped his horses from San Francisco to Chicago. B. J.'s California campaign was not distinctly a success though Paul Griggs did a bit more than his share in the way of paying expenses after he got to running in his true form. Griggs is a very fast horse and will be favorably heard from on the Chicago tracks next summer.

The profits of the racing at Ingleside Monday and Tuesday of this week were devoted to local charities. Both of the San Francisco racing organizations annually turn over several thousand dollars to the hospital and other benevolent institutions of San Francisco and Oakland. It is more than a praiseworthy practice.

The selling race war at Newport is one of the main features, with 'Gene Leigh as chief master of ceremonies. Through it he lost Dollie Regent to James V. Carter Monday, and for his part acquired ownership of Protect and Rey del Mar. It is mainly a good thing for the jockey club.

The California Jockey Club will give five extra days' racing at the conclusion of their next meeting. One day out of the five will be conceded to the Pacific Coast Jockey Club, who will donate the proceeds to the San Francisco orphan asylums.

It is announced that officials for the Lakeside meeting will be: Presiding judge, John Kelsey; associate judge, W. A. Hamilton; secretary, M. Nathanson; starter, Richard Dwyer; clerk of the scales, P. P. Pomeroy; paddock judge, Jose Loughran.

The promising 3-year-old Michael III fell dead at Gravesend Wednesday after an exercise gallop of a mile. The colt was thought to have a decidedly good chance of winning the Metropolitan Handicap at Morris Park.

Starter Dick Dwyer is putting in his spare time in educating the 2-year-olds at the Roby track in the art of facing the starting gate in the way all starters desire good 2-year-olds should do.

Trappean started in the sixth race at Ingleside, Tuesday, April 26. He was not included in chart 5336, because of an error of transmission by telegraph.

Winner—B. f. 3, by Ormonde—Fairy Rose. Start good. The first seven were busy at end. Rosormonde was well ridden and had good luck. She was the form of race and is in good condition. Had a lot of speed. Antonio ran his race. Was not well handled and bad management caused him to be cut off when the field spread out at head of stretch. He ran a good race. Tab him. Mariner is improving. He made up a lot of ground. Watch him, too. Ashley likes distance off. She was poorly handled. The Ace can also be tabbed. He was cut off on the stretch bend. He is ready and should favor a route. Ione was a good horse at finish. Throw out Suscol's race. Negligence had a lot of early speed, but stopped badly.

Scratched—Little T. G., 103; Major Hooker, 108; Oahu, 110; Tempse, 110; Mistletoe, 115.

Winner—Ch. f. 4, by Apache—Rill. Start good. Lena was ridden out. San Mateo should have won. He was best, but unlucky. He is fit, but only a sprinter. Lena had good fortune and is in good condition. Her game is a route. Was well ridden. Ross ran her race and was well ridden. She needs strong handling. Watch Zamar. He was used a lot for pacing and quit at the end. He is ready and needs strong handling, though he does not like weight. Dolore was outclassed. She ran her race and can go a route. Widow Jones ran dully. Olive was off badly and had an easy race. Fortuna is not of much present account.

Scratched—Tom Smith, 108.

Winner—Br. f. 4, by Brutus—Nabette. Start good. Won in a hard drive. Twink overcame the trouble of interference and bad riding and wore down his horses at the end in game style. Zarro was lucky and ran his race. He is ready for winning among his own kind. Was a trifle outclassed. Zaraida closed stoutly, but is uncertain. Justine and Florimel seem to be of no present account. Nic Nac was outclassed and always outrun.

Scratched—Queen Blazes, 108; Claudiana, 108.

Winner—Ch. c, by Red Iron—Lilly Wright. Start good. Olintus was mildly ridden out. He was the best. The colt is game to the core. Was cut off at start. Will go any distance. Young closed most resolutely. He was cut off in the stretch bend. Is fit, and favors a route. Excursion beat the barrier, but was used too much. He wasn't any too lucky in the stretch contention. Is ready to win. Sombre does not seem to favor a distance. She ran as if short, though the use made of her with Excursion may have stopped him at end. He is fit. Keep him on tab. So record Master Lee, who ran a good race and was eased at end. The others were never contenders.

5359 FIFTH RACE—1 1-16 Miles. Purse $400. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g, 7, by Buckra—We Wa. Start good. Buckwa outclassed the field and won as he chose. It was a sharp form reversal. Thelma ran her race and is good. Marco is a contortionist. Watch him. Del Paso was dull of speed. Throw Pry's race out and do not drop him.

She is in good shape and closed stoutly. William O'B was outclassed on speed. Tab him. He closed strong. Throw out Cabrillo's race. He could never keep up.
